HYDRACURE

A CURE OF ACTIVE HYDRATION

Dehydration, even in youthful skin, is one of the main factors that make the skin more vulnerable to oxidative stress, which accelerates the appearance of the first signs of ageing: dull tone, small marked wrinkles, lack of comfort and suppleness.

Germaine de Capuccini offers a new hydration: active hydration that works in a sensational way against dehydration, thus protecting the skin from premature ageing.

Hydractive formulas

100% hydrating action in which all its components, even the Perfume and Active Textures, perfectly blend with the skin favouring their absorption and providing intense and lasting hydration.

High, medium and low molecular weight Hyaluronic Acid: main ingredient of the line. Helps recover hydration and prevents loss of water.

Natural EPS: maintain the skin in optimal conditions to work as a protective barrier.

Microsponges: immediately provide a velvety touch to the skin's surface and progressively liberate Lactic Acid and Ceramides.

Thermal water from the Japanese spring Izumo Yumura: enriched with beneficial nutrients to the skin that increase hydration and improve the cutaneous relief.

Immediate

sensation of intense hydration.

Lasting

recovers and protects the skin's natural hydration system.

The water is captured in various stages of motion, from falling droplets to large, cascading sheets of water. The color palette is dominated by various shades of blue and white, giving it a clean, aquatic feel.
